

I'd like to express my support for the removal of the Element 1 as part of the requirement for General and Extra Class licenses. I did learn morse code to get my Novice license over 20 years ago, but I feel this is no longer needed. I do support a more difficult written portion. Thank you for allowing me to comment.